

Sven Heimann

Associate
Dipl Ing MArch ARB

Sven Heimann studied architecture at the State Academy of Fine Arts in Stuttgart, Germany, the Gerrit Rietveld Academy in Amsterdam and the Bartlett School of Architecture, University College London. He joined Eric Parry Architects as Project Architect in spring 2014 and has since worked on various residential and office schemes. Sven was appointed Associate in 2017 and is currently working on 1 Undershaft, a 73 storey office tower in the City of London.

Prior to joining the practice, Sven was Project Architect at David Walker Architects, where he was responsible for a range of high end residential, academic and office projects in Central London.

This included the redevelopment of Milton Court, a 36 storey residential tower combined with a new concert hall, theatre and academic facilities for the Guildhall School of Music and Drama, 22-29 Albert Embankment, a residential tower in Vauxhall and One Water Lane, an office building along the river Thames near the Tower of London.

He was also involved in the design of the new Bulgari Hotel in Knightsbridge as well as residential schemes in Moscow and St. Petersburg.
